EPA-DHA+ omega-3 oil is essential for your health...

Supplementing with healthy omega-3s from fish may help transform every cell in our bodies, significantly improving our potential for good health and vitality.*

Dr. Ferre's
Optimal Health

Nutritionally supports many body systems!

- Cardiovascular Health: Supportive but not conclusive research shows that consumption of EPA and DHA omega-3 fatty acids may reduce the risk of coronary heart disease
- Brain Function: A recent study showed that omega-3 supplements may be associated with better cognitive function in late life*
- Joint Health: Research shows that omega-3s help maintain joint tissue health and promote natural compounds associated with minor pain relief*
- Blood Sugar Metabolism: Emerging science suggests that omega-3s, as a part of a healthy diet, help maintain healthy blood sugar and insulin metabolism*

- Pregnancy & Child Development: Research indicates that omega-3s support a healthy pregnancy and childhood growth and development*

Dr. Ferre's Optimal Health makes purity the #1 priority for your health!

Choosing the best omega-3 formula for your health is no small decision. Many fish species contain unhealthy levels of environmental toxins that can negatively affect the purity and safety of omega-3 formulas. This makes the processing technology utilized to purify the fish oil absolutely critical.

Dr. Ferre's Optimal Health omega-3 formulas are custom-made in Norway and purified with an advanced, proprietary detoxification process that removes potentially harmful compounds. Extensive laboratory testing is performed to confirm the formulas are free of contamination from environmental toxins. Very few companies meet these rigorous guidelines!
